

La Casita Verde 2017 Fall Events

Open to the General Public, the 2017 Fall Events at La Casita Verde are All Great Ways to Enjoy the New Season

As a continuation of the partnership between Kiwi Energy and La Casita Verde, New Yorkers are invited to participate in any of these occasions sponsored by Kiwi Energy, free of admission!

The City After Climate Change

September 9th from 7:30pm-9pm (Rain date 9/10)

A discussion led by Vanessa Keith, New York-based architect, on her new book 2100: A Dystopian Utopia – The City After Climate Change.

Music for Plants

October 14th from 5-9 pm (Rain date 10/15)

Enjoy live performances by two artist groups from the collection of music made for the pleasure and benefit of plants inspired by Peter Coffin.

Macramé Plant Holders & Medicinal Plants

October 28th 1-3pm (Rain date 10/29)

Members of La Casita Verde will instruct participants on how to make a macramé plant holder, which they can either donate to help build La Casita Verde's new medicinal vertical garden, or bring home.

Our Public Water: Tunnels and Tanks

September 30 1-3 pm (Rain date 10/1)

A speech by artist, Lize Mogel, analyzing how the rural Catskills and urban South Williamsburg are physically and politically connected by water, followed by a demonstration of La Casita Verde's new rainwater catchment system.

Marathon Day

November 5th 10-4pm

Come celebrate the end of the season at mile 10 of the NYC Marathon route, La Casita Verde, and cheer the runners from the garden with special guests, The Silver Sirens, a cheerleading squad made up of senior citizens that champion healthcare issues in public performances.

Address: 451 Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn, NY 11238

Please RSVP to Brooke Singer at brooke@lacasitaverde.nyc.

www.lacasitaverde.nyc