ORIGINAL STORY

‘Feed Me a Story’ of Stuffed Eggplant

The Lo-Down is posting weekly installments of eight cooking videos from “Feed Me a Story,” a project from multimedia artists Theresa Loong and Laura Nova. In each of the videos, a senior from the Lower East Side shares with viewers how to make a family dish, while also telling their own story behind it. The recipes come from people of Chinese, Jewish, Puerto Rican and Italian background.

The first video appearing in The Lo-Down comes from Wong Wai Man (or Anna Wong, in English), who prepares Stuffed Chinese Eggplant, a dish that includes minced fish, shrimp and pork.
